

A detailed floor plan of a house, likely a villa, showing various rooms and their furniture. The plan includes a central entrance (ENTRÉ) leading to a large living area (KONTORESYTA) with a large table and chairs. To the left, there are two smaller living areas (KONTORESYTA) with sofas and armchairs. The top left features three bedrooms (SÖTTAGNINGSRUM) with beds and wardrobes (KLOSETT). The top right has a dining area (KONTORESYTA) with a large table and chairs. The bottom left contains two bathrooms (SANTALRUM) with tubs and showers. The bottom right shows a kitchen (KÖK) and a pantry (PENTRY). A central staircase (TRAPPHUS) leads to an upper level. Other rooms include a study (STÄD/FRD), a toilet (WC), and a storage room (TM). The plan is labeled with room names in Swedish and includes furniture symbols like beds, sofas, tables, chairs, and wardrobes.
